

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 17, 1993

My prayers are with everyone gathered to remember the fifteenth anniversary of the Jonestown tragedy. The incident in Guyana was a very painful episode for the families of those who died and for our country as a whole, and I want to extend my deepest sympathies. I know that your service will be an inspiring memorial to those who lost their lives so senselessly at Jonestown.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Bill Clinton". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a long horizontal line extending from the end of the name.
